let's see here~

oh, isn't this the coilar Elec was wearing?
ooo
hahaha yeah, that's right
i picked up the pieces you cut

This was used a long long time ago on spirits and fairies that became criminals, as a way to prevent them from using magic SFX giggle~ Magic?
yeah,
you know, the sparkiy flashy stuff the sibiings used yesterday 까르륵~

How interesting
I thought they were using psychic powers or something.
Oh my~
There's no such thing as psychic powers~
This isn't a comic, you know~
Imao

It's strange though.
I thought that only spirits and fairies could use magic...
It's something you'd see only after living so long

But besides that,
The real reason I picked it up was because of this EFX: Hoo Hoo
do you see these strands?

this is a Spider's web spider webs absorb magic I'm sick is really demand, so they may have purposely gave to the Spider Queen to get this made

there's not much left to prepare for our plans as well

I wonder... It looked like there were too many materials to gather aw~ don't be like that SFX takes out

It's inevitable that important things require a lot of materials to put together

What are you going to do about your curse?

SFX fwip—

ah~ there's no solution to a witch's curse

because a curse can only be broken by the one who cast it let's leave that witch alone for now they might find our weakness if we're not careful

SFX: hmmm

Well, since we have two underlings now, we don't have to worry about it.

BFB, Neha
